

Fair Representation Learning for Heterogeneous Information Networks

- It is a systematic investigation on measuring and mitigating demographic bias in heterogeneous information networks (HINs) representation.
- We propose a comprehensive suite of de-biasing algorithms ranging from sampling-based, projection-based, to graph neural networks (GNNs)-based techniques to mitigate demographic biases in HINs representation.