

On positive moderation decisions / Mattia Samory

Moderation research studied what moderators remove and what remains visible on social media, possibly never reviewed. What do moderators explicitly approve?

- . I characterize human moderator-approved comments in 49 subreddits
- . approved & removed comments are often similar (and unlike those never reviewed)
- . automated moderation would remove half of comments approved by humans